YES, MACHM.

A ewe who had swallowed a drachm Of paris green said to her ranch, I am going away,
But as long as you stay, Please, dearest, be kind to our lachm.

Mrs. William O'Brien is ill with pneumonia at her home on Bridge street.

The fellow who keeps his troubles to himself has learned the secret of popularity.

A Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution has been organized at Winchester.

Rev. Paul Rhodes is conducting protracted meeting at Mayslick, assisted by Rev. S. D.
Boggs.

The First Baptist Church at Winchester has extended a call to Dr. A. C. Davidson of Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Three large ricks of hay were burned on the farm of Mr. Elijah Kirk in the county Sunday night. Thought to be of incendiary origin.

The employees of the C. and O. shops at Huntington have received notice that the working days at the shops would be reduced to four days of eight hours each week. A few months ago the shops were working six days of ten hours each. The action was thought advisable in view of the fact that, had it not been taken, it would have been necessary to lay off about one-third of the men employed at the shops.

ington roundhouse.

Mrs. W. L. Schatzmann is slowly recovering from an attack of grip.

Pneumonia caused the death of twenty people at Louisville last week.

The funeral of the late Miss Letitia Wood occurred Saturday afternoon at Louisville.

Augusta and vicinity has fifteen citizens whose age average a little over 83 years each.

Fletcher Toadvine, aged 82, was burned to death at his home in Avena, Harrison county, while his wife and daughter were out visiting.
The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have resulted from the explosion of a lamp.

Colonel John D. Bridges of Portsmouth has gone to New York to attend the Merchants' Conclave, whose meeting at Gotham is to place orders for goods to be sold during the next six months. These meetings are held to stimulate buying and the buyers have their expenses paid for making the trip.

The first official act of acting Governor William H. Cox was to appoint two Special Judges, one being that of Samuel Holmes of Carlisle as Special Judge to preside at a special term of the Bell Circuit Court, to last sixty days.

Miss Ella Patterson of Paducah has brought suit against the Pullman Company and the Illinois Central Railroad Company for $2,000 damages, alleging that a male passenger had attempted to enter her berth, and when she called for aid the conductor refused to put him out of the drawing-room in which the berth was located.

The Winchester correspondent of The Lexington Gazette says: "Mrs. John T. Willson, aunt of Mrs. G. A. Brooks, went over to Lexington last night, where they were joined by Mrs. Joseph Perry, of Maysville. The party will leave from Lexington today for a two months vacation at Palm Beach, Florida. Mr.
Brooks accompanied them as far as Lexington."

SOUSA'S ENLARGED BAND

He Brings to the West and South a Larger Body Than Ever Before.
Tonight at the Washington

Today is Sousa's day to arrive here, together with his band of 55, including the soloists, are a who a strong feature.

The happy fact is esteemed by the general public quite as well as by the strictly musical people, for Sousa plays not to a faction, but to everybody. There will not be a person among all the crowds that will bear Sousa tonight but will thoroughly appreciate every swoop of the massed instruments, the band's full strength, but also the more subdued and sensitive passages, where the most delicate artistic translation must tell the story. Of course, the marches and Sousa heroics will be there in the encore music as a rule, but there is a predominance of highest form in the programme numbers.

There is a new Sousa March, by the way, "Powhattan's Daughter," which is a programme number. The entire programme is one that challenges attention.

All in all Sousa never yet came to the West and South quite so well primed and entrenched as he is this time, at any rate, never more so.
There are half a dozen more instrumentalists than ever before.

Elbin Newby, a lumberman, shot and killed his wife and then committed suicide at Valley View, Ky. Mrs. Newby had been up all night with a sick child and Newby is supposed to have killed her because breakfast was not ready when he came home. Helpless neighbors across the river saw Newby kill the woman and drag her body to the house, where later they found the body of Newby and a freezing and dying child.

Auditor F. P. James has appointed Mr. H.
L. Walsh of this city Revenue Agent for Masson county.

The groundhog and Bassler, when it comes to prognosticating weather conditions are both of the same caliber—neither one is reliable authority.

The inventory and appraisalment of the estate of the late Dr. Samuel Brough of the county amounted to $6,166.55, and the widow's allotment amounted to $678.50.

C. C. Weber, Architect of Cincinnati was here yesterday in consultation with the contractor and Building Committee in regard to matters pertaining to the new High School Building.

Mr. Charles Zweigart of Covington is here for a few days owing to the illness of his venerable mother, Mrs. A. M. Zweigart. This good woman is past eighty years, and the greater portion of her life has been spent in this city.

About six weeks ago Mr. Edward Whittington sold his business place at the corner of Market and Front streets to a Mr. Young for which he received $1,500 cash. These strenuous times were a little too much and not to the liking of Mr. Young, who began rousing his bargain, and which finally terminated in Mr.
Whittington buying the place back for a consideration of $900—a profit of $600 on Ed's side of the ledger and just the reverse for the other fellow. But then every one can't be a financier; some have to be on the losing side, were it not so, there would be no Gould's, Vanderbilt's and that class of money getters.

Mr. Charles Parry is very ill at his home near Mayslick.

The cold snap coming in an opportune time has caused the river to recede as rapidly as it came up. There is a prevailing opinion among rivermen that there will be no flood in this month, what March has up its sleeve is an unknown quantity. The ice is thinning out and the packets have again resumed their regular runs.

NEARLY A HUNDRED

Unite With the Church at Rev. Davenport's Meeting at Sedden's Chapel

The protracted meeting now in progress at Sedden's Chapel, East Maysville, continues to grow more enthusiastic. There have been 45 converted and 22 additions to the Church up to Sunday night.

The Christian life of the community is being strengthened and edified. We feel that the meeting is producing in the Church, not a passion show, but a deep work of grace in the hearts of God's people.

Brother Davenport is an earnest, faithful presenter of the Gospel plan of salvation, by his deep piety and consecration, and by his magnificent social qualities he has endeared himself to the Church and to the community.

May God's richest voice and blessing abide with him always.

Cartmel extracts teeth without pain

Miss Lida D. Woods of this city won third prize last week offered by The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune on criticisms of the two stories, Mr. Pemberton's "Sir Richard Escamble" and Mrs. Freeman's "The Shoulders of Atlas."

At Cincinnati, Leane D. Keith has sued for divorce from Oliver E. Keith and restoration to her maiden name, alleging that he willfully absented himself from her in December, 1903, and has failed to provide for her since. They were married in this city in October, 1902.
